CRIPPLES WORRY TO N. D. COACHES

Eichenlaub and Finegan Out of Line-up Will Weaken Gold and Blue—Lathrop May Also be on Side Lines.

Coaches Harper and Reckie sent the Notre Dame varsity squad through a long drill on Cartier field yesterday morning in preparation for the game with the Haskell Indians here tomorrow.

A part of the time was taken up with a long signal drill, while the coaches worked at building up a defense for the Haskell plays without allowing any rough work.

The coaches are taking pains that there will be no more injuries before the game with the Indians. Haskell is regarded as a worthy opponent and one calculated to make the locals work to the limit if they are to win.

Coaches Worried.

With Eichenlaub and Finegan out of the coming game and Lathrop on the doubtful list, coaches are worried over Saturday's game.

Captain Harper continues to emphasize the fact that Haskell has a good chance of winning and that the Indians will come here loaded down to the gunwales with a varied assortment of plays.

The Redskins are particularly adept in the use of the forward pass, while trick plays form an important part of their attack.

"Bunny" Larkin, who has heretofore been a halfback, has been shifted to the sub-quarterback position and has been going good in practice.

Much is expected of Bergman, Captain Jones and Bachman in Saturday's game. Bergman has proved a whirlwind at quarterback and his work will probably be a feature of the game with Haskell.

Despite injuries to his hands, is playing the game of his career at left tackle and he will be looked to as a bulwark on both the offense and defense in Saturday's battle.

The work of Bachman, the big sophomore guard, has attracted the attention of critics this season. He has proved a strong, shifty lineman of the aggressive type.

"Eich" Comes Out.

The fans were cheered by the appearance of Eichenlaub in uniform yesterday, for the first time since the Yale game, when he was injured.

"Eich" will not get into the Haskell game, but he may be in the lineup against the Army a week from Saturday. The news that the big fellow may get back into the game for the West Point fray has elated the students.

Lathrop was out yesterday for the first time since the South Dakota game, when he was hurt. His leg is in bad shape and he may not be in the lineup against Haskell.

Sims Finegan will not be in Saturday's game. His ankle is in bad shape and there is no chance of his playing.

"Eddie" Dugan will start the game at fullback and J. Miller will be held in reserve.

Because of the poor physical condition of the team, the result of numerous injuries, the coaches are much worried over Saturday's game.

Preparations are being made to handle a big crowd at the game with the Indians.

WILL NOT CONTEST RACE

Directorum I and William's Men Come to Agreement.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 30.—There is to be no legal battle or investigation by the American Trotting association over the race between Directorum I, world's greatest pacer, and William, held in this city Oct. 21, over the withholding of the $5,000 by Dr. S. F. Dodson, the promoter. He has come to an amicable agreement with Dr. J. F. McCoy of New York, manager of Directorum I, and William's driver, W. W. Marvin of Lafayette, Ind. Dodson did not pay over the full amount of the purse, and the holdover will go to local charity. The horses were expected to set a world's record, but their best time was 2:01 1-4.

HARVARD TO FLY RED FLAG

Police Chief Will Permit Students to Carry Crimson Banner.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 30.—Harvard students are free to go ahead and fly their crimson flag. Acting Chief J. E. Murray of the Cambridge police rallied around the red flag of Harvard Thursday by putting a quietus on a report that he would forbid a parade by students if the crimson was born aloft, and would have policemen on hand to make arrests of students who defied the much-discussed red flag law. Chief Murray is not going to do any such thing. He said so Thursday. The first flying of the crimson at Harvard since the red flag decision of the supreme court is planned for the Wednesday preceding the Harvard-Yale game. It was announced Thursday.

WALSH HALL ELEVEN LOSES TILT TO SORIN

Calligan and Henehan Feature Brilliant Work of Bookies in Interhall Game.

INTER-HALL LEAGUE.
Team	W.	L.	Pct.
St. Joe	1	0	1.000
Corby	1	0	1.000
Sorin	1	0	1.000
Brownson	0	1	.000
Walsh	0	2	.000

RESULTS YESTERDAY.
Sorin, 20; Walsh, 0.
Game Sunday.
St. Joe vs. Corby.

Sorin defeated Walsh in the third inter-hall game of the season at Notre Dame yesterday, 20 to 0.

Line plunges by Brenehan and brilliant broken field running by Calligan and Miller gained Sorin two touchdowns in the first quarter. The Walsh kids held the Bookies scoreless in the second quarter. In the third quarter Calligan of Sorin intercepted a forward pass and ran 50 yards for a touchdown.

The Walsh hallers put up a game exhibition in the second quarter and throughout the second half and held the heavier and faster Sorin team well.

Henehan, Calligan, Miller and Welch starred for Sorin, while O'Neill, Lavaghugh and Grady starred for Walsh.

The lineup:
Sorin—Carmody, lb; Welch, lt; Shaughnessy, c; Munger, rg; Stack, rt; Hearn, re; Hines (captain), qb; Calligan, lb; Miller, rmb; Henehan, fb.

Walsh—Ryan, lb; May, lt; Maguire, rg; Griffin, c; Hanley, rg; McIneny, rt; O'Brien, re; O'Neill, qb; Brown, lb; Hartley, rmb; Collins, lb.

SHIFTS IN TIGER LINE

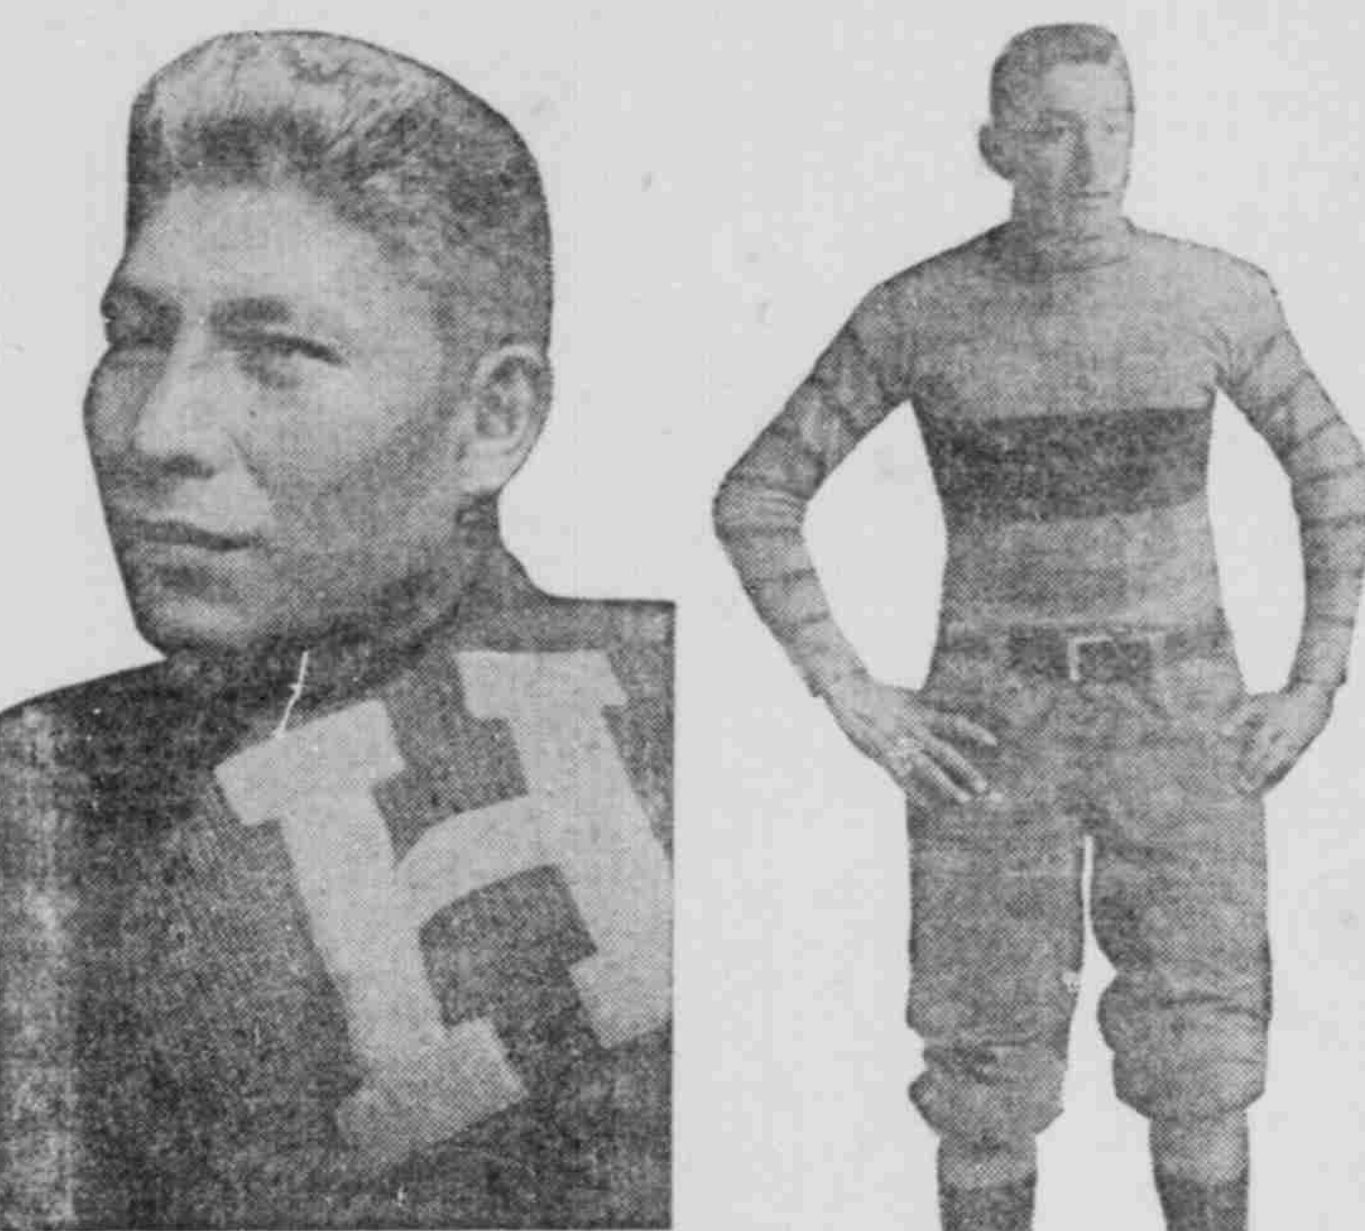

Machine to Meet Yale and Harvard Not Yet Known.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 30.—Several radical shifts in the Tiger lineup Thursday show that the personnel of the team against Harvard and Yale is yet far from definite. Foster, who has been substituting for E. Trenkman at guard, was shifted to tackle and may replace Badger at that position. Larsen, a scrub tackle, was tried out at center for a while and did some accurate passing. The most startling change was the shift of Glick from half to quarter. Although this may be only a temporary arrangement it is surprising after the excellent work of Ames in running the team in the Dartmouth game.

DEWIES REPORT.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 30.—T. O. Meyers of the Indianapolis motor speedway today denied that the speedway had broken its relations with the American Automobile association.

Two Indian Players Who Will Battle Notre Dame Saturday

CAPT. STOVER.
Coach Harper has his doubts regarding the relative strength of Notre Dame and Haskell university, who will clash at Cartier field Saturday afternoon. Two of the strongest men on the Indian eleven are Capt. Stover and "Tex" Richards. Capt. Stover plays at center and is strong on both defensive and offensive. The Haskell crack player is Richards, halfback, who is adept with the forward pass, being noted for his ability at long throwing. "Tex" is a Pawnee Indian and lives in Oklahoma. This is his fourth year on the Haskell team and his speed and 170 pounds of muscle makes him a man to be feared by the Notre Dame crew.

AMERICAN LEAGUE TO HAVE EARLY MEETING

Magnates Will Gather at Chicago About Nov. 6 for Important Secret Session.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Instead of waiting until the middle of December to hold their annual meeting, as per custom of former seasons, the American league magnates will assemble here in star chamber session on or about Nov. 6. Pres't B. Johnson today issued the summons notifying each club owner that business of great importance would be up for decision.

According to Pres't Johnson, a big story will break. As this session will precede the annual convocation of the clubs at Omaha it is reported the magnates will delve into the troubles of the little fellows and attempt to map out ways and means of assisting the oppressed bushers.

There are several subjects which might be of interest to club owners at this time. Connie Mack has some bruised shins as a result of the world series which really ought to be rubbed a little.

Then again some of the magnates may want to know why the name of "Big Bill" Dwyer got into the limelight during the row which culminated in the resignation of Frank Chance as manager of the Highlanders. Silent partners in baseball franchises are not uncommon, but they are supposed to remain silent. It is not considered good form for a "silent" partner to make a noise to the public as Dwyer did.

When the international questions are settled to the satisfaction of those present, announcement that the American league as a league is opposed to any compromise or temporary arrangement with the independents is expected.

COFFROTH BUYS BALL CLUB.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—The San Francisco Pacific Coast baseball club was sold Thursday afternoon to James W. Coffroth, prize fight promoter, and Sam Berger, a prominent sportsman, by J. Cal Ewing and Frank Mish, the present owners. Coffroth and Berger paid $250,000 for the club. It is said.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The lure of the bright lights brought Ad Wolgast in from Del Hawkins' training camp out in West Chester Thursday night and for the next few days the Michigan wild cat will work out in Cooper's gym. Wolgast is over the hardest part of his work, having been at the merry grind for the past 20 days and to keep his mind at ease will take in a few shows which has been a hobby of the ex-champion for years.

Wolgast has eliminated boxing from his worry and will not try the gloves on until Friday. He has taken every precaution to protect his hands from injury, but has not neglected any other form of gymnasium work. Thursday Wolgast worked out for 45 minutes punching the bag, shadow sparring, pulling weights, skipping the rope and taking the various floor exercises for the stomach. When the afternoon's work was over Wolgast tipped the beam at 155 1-2 which means that he will be at the stipulated mark Friday.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Tommy Sheehan will act as manager for Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul fighter, beginning Dec. 1.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 30.—Earl Morris gained the decision over Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman, at the end of the 10-round bout last night.

Beginning Saturday, the Phila. offer you its fine line of assorted 60c chocolates at 50c per pound. Adv.

WHAT IS TROUBLE WITH CARLISLE?

Football Fans Are Puzzled by Showing of Indian Eleven Which in Past Has Been One of Strongest Teams.

BY FRANK G. MENKE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—"What's the matter with Carlisle?" is the big football question of the year, and even Glen Warner, the great coach of the Indian eleven, seems unable to make answer.

Not in years has any Carlisle team made as poor an early season showing as has Warner's 1914 outfit. Carlisle always has had a team that took rank with the greatest in the country. The Carlisle team of the past crushed the smaller colleges and often played the biggest and strongest either to a standstill, or went farther, and gave them a beating.

But this year it is different. Carlisle was beaten soundly in more of its first six games, and against the types of foes that Carlisle would have considered "easy meat" in other years.

In its first six games Carlisle has scored only 42 points—an average of only one touchdown an hour.

The Carlisle team of 1913 scored almost as many points against the great Dartmouth eleven in one game as has the 1914 eleven in six games this year against foes that are considered weaklings in comparison with Dartmouth.

The strangest part of the Carlisle reversal is the fact that the Carlisle team of 1914 at the outset of the season looked to be just about as good as the 1913 eleven.

Pugilistic champions pay just about as much attention to weight limits as the Federal league does to San Johnson's threat.

The bantam limit is 115. Kid Williams no longer will agree to weigh in at that figure. About 120 or 121 is more to his liking. And more within his possibilities.

Johnny Kilbane, the featherweight champ, won't hop into the ring under 125, although the limit is 122. Freddie Welsh, lightweight champion of the world, won't do 133 ringside, the prescribed limit. Willie Ritchie, lightweight champ of the dear and glorious U. S. A., makes 135 and no less.

Mike Gibbons, the acknowledged welterweight champion, won't submit to weighing in at ringside. He'll do 145 at 3 p. m.—and then gain about five pounds between that time and the hour set for the fight.

The middleweight limit is 155. George Chip, leading champion for title of that division, will make 153 at 5 p. m., but he won't make it at ringside. His ringside weight is 160—and over.

Notes of Boxers

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Willie Ritchie, former lightweight champion, and Jess Willard, the big Kansasian who hopes to knock Jack Johnson off the championship pedestal, will be in Chicago Monday, coming from the coast. Ritchie is coming to see the Welsh-White fight in Milwaukee and challenge the winner. Willard is going on to New York to clinch a match with Johnson, New York promoters having offered a purse for the battle.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Billy Nolan will act as manager for Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul fighter, beginning Dec. 1.
